Journal Writing of Wendy M.

November 21, 2003

The business is growing and the candle is being perfected. We have gone from a roaster pan to a barrel to 2 sink pan. She is now putting other ingredients in. I was told I had skin cancer on my cheek and scared at how it would look after a hunk of cheek is taken out of my face. Sharon said try some of this on the scar. I have been using it for a month every day and it is looking better. The Dr. said he couldn't believe the results either. I told him it was a lot due to the candle Sharon made.
